We need your help in crocheting plastic sleeping mats for the homeless. We will provide the plastic "plarn". Come to the White Chapel each Monday at 1:30 pm where we are making the "plarn."

You can learn how we are making the "plarn" and can also get instructions on making the sleeping mats. These are made with a "Q" crochet hook. Our goal is to provide 100 plastic sleeping mats for our Granbury homeless.

This is a project of the United Methodist Women.

Backpack Lunch Ministry

During the school year, Acton United Methodist purchases, packs, and serves 3,600 weekend backpack lunches, to students at GISD in need. Often, this is the only food that they have for the weekend. This program is not budgeted and comes from funds raised entirely by our congregation and a grant through Neighbors Feeding Neighbors. Volunteers are needed to help with shopping and delivering the backpack lunches. Contact Pastor Ben for more information on this program or to volunteer ben@actonumc.org.
