Today's Scripture Lessons

Matthew 28:1-10 (NRSV)

²⁸After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ²And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.

⁴For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. ⁵But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." ⁸So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

John 15:12-17 (NRSV)

¹²This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. ¹⁶You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. ¹⁷I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Psalms 4:7-8 (ASV)

⁷Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than they have when their grain and their new wine are increased. ⁸In peace will I both lay me down and sleep; For thou, Jehovah, alone makest me dwell in safety.

Acton United Methodist Church

extends her most sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who helped to make our Easter worship experience a true celebration of life, including our Chancel Choir, our multimedia staff and volunteers, our greeters, ushers, and United Methodist Women for assisting with flowers for the crosses, our trustees, our first responders, our lay worship leaders, and to everyone who blessed us with their presence today.

We would also like to express our deepest thanks to Joseph and Erin Noëlliste for their work in music ministry for over the last three years. This will be their final worship service with us, and we pray blessings on them in the future.
